Company Profile

Background

Travel Careers & Training commenced business in Wellington over 20 years ago. Since that time Travel Careers & Training has built an enviable reputation for delivering high quality education and training and giving thousands of people the chance to start a career in the airline, travel and tourism industry. Travel Careers & Training is part of the Aviation and Travel Training Group which has 7 campuses throughout New Zealand.

Industry partnerships

Our close relationship with the major players of the airline, travel and tourism industry allows us to gain an extremely accurate picture about where the industry is going and what the staffing requirements in terms of skill set will be. These partnerships ensure that Travel Careers & Training graduates are highly sought after by employers throughout the tourism sector. Our students also complete exclusive industry certificates: Contiki Tours, Hertz Rental Cars, Menzies Aviation, Blue Lagoon Cruises, Singapore Airlines and others as part of their course.

Smaller classes

Travel Careers & Training is committed to providing a high quality educational experience. Class sizes are limited to 20 people so students enjoy individual attention which helps ensure success. Teaching staff come from a range of tourism backgrounds and have recent work experience. Student satisfaction surveys show that over 95% of students are very satisfied with their course.

Diploma in Tourism & Aviation (Flight Attending) Level 5

Is this course right for me?

If you want to become a flight attendant, supervisor or senior customer service agent in the airline, travel and tourism field, this course will help you to achieve your goal. If you want to gain a Diploma in Business, this course provides a staircase for you to the NZ Diploma in Business L6 (NZ Dip Bus).

About this course

In this course, you will study:

1. Advanced skills for the aviation and tourism industry
 - Senior customer service
 - Supervising staff in the tourism and aviation industries
 - International airfare construction and ticketing
2. Flight attending
 - Managing passenger service and safety procedures on board an aircraft
 - Managing air service emergencies and using aircraft emergency equipment
3. NZ Diploma in Business (3 papers)
 - Business communication
 - Tourism industry management
 - One elective paper

The course combines face to face classroom teaching and practical experience in the 737 and 747 cabin trainers. You will spend time at our Aircrew Training Centre where several airlines including Pacific Blue do their training.

Some components of the course could be studied in several ways depending on your needs and location. The NZ Diploma in Business papers may be studied face to face or on line.

Career and job opportunities

The travel and tourism industry is the largest employer in the world and the aviation market is one of the fastest growing sectors in India and China. On completion of this course, you will be able to work in the airlines as a flight attendant or in a supervisory or senior customer service position in the tourism field.

If you want to work in New Zealand, our Diploma gives you 50 points towards residency.

How long is the course?

The length of the course is 36 weeks. Every week you will spend 18 hours in class and approximately 16 hours in self directed learning.

Course entry criteria

International students who have English as a second language must have an IELTS score of 6.0 (academic) with no individual band lower than 5.5 or an equivalent. Provisional entry may be granted to applicants who do not meet the above criteria but can present evidence of ability to succeed (eg maturity, life experience, work experience, other study).
